Notes to the condensed interim consolidated financial statements for the (continued)

Group operational and financial review

The Board is pleased to report on the Group's financial results for the period

Financial Performance

The Group incurred an operating loss of N$11.6 million, reflecting a substantial improvement compared to the operating loss of N$61.2 million in the comparative period.

Revenue

Group revenue for the 6 months ended 31 December 2023 increased by 32.7% compared to the 6 months ended 31 December 2022.

Hangana Seafood's revenue increased by N$139.5 million (51.4%) compared to the comparative period. The MFV Erica, was involved in an accident in the comparative period. The current period had higher volumes caught, increased prices, higher exchange rate and a favorable sales mix, compared to the six months ended 31 December 2022.

Kraatz revenue has decreased by N$ 24.6 million (32.3%) in the current period compared to the comparative period. Kraatz is now focusing on engineering (both marine and industrial) and closed its Hitachi sales division in the current period.

A gross profit margin of 11.6% has been achieved in the current period compared to the negative margin in the comparative period. This is a result of the increase in revenue as well as a 13% reduction in average fuel prices.

Other income

Other income increased due to a profit share from Exigrade JV and an increase in the processing fees.

Operating expenses

Operating expenses increased in line with the increase in revenue but included a number of once off costs.

Subsequent Events

No significant subsequent event occurred after the reporting date.

The Board remains optimistic that Hangana will deliver solid results for the next six months, citing a significant increase in factory throughput over the last two months and positive catch volumes as encouraging indicators for future success. More emphasis is placed on both short-term and long-term strategies concerning cost, volume, and value, all aimed at improving the sustainability of

Kraatz will continue to focus on improving productivity which will result in better
